INDICTMENTS IN CRIMINAL COURT.

Grand Jury Made First Returns When Court Convened This Morning.

ROUTINE MATTERS DISPOSED OF

Criminal Court will not get in full swing until tomorrow when the trial of cases will be taken up. The Grand Jury this morning returned a batch of indictments as follows:

Paul Marinko, selling liquor; Anne Lynch, prosecutrix.

William Dumbauld, assault on battery and statutory rape; Mary Jane Falk, prosecutrix.

George Danish, selling liquor; Alex. McBeth, prosecutrix.

Eugene Pearlman, selling liquor; Alex. McBeth, prosecutrix.

Thomas Balaban, assault and battery; Mrs. George Kilgus, prosecutrix. Prosecutrix to pay the costs and no costs to go to Justice George B. Graham.

On petition of Orlando Adit North B. Richter of Connelville, the adoption of Elroy Leonard O'Sell was sanctioned by the court. The mother of the child is dead and the father, William O'Sell, consented to the adoption.

In the small court room the Bosty rape case is on. Practically the same evidence that was presented at the former trial in June is being heard. At the former trial the jury was unable to agree.

Thomas W. Baxter of Connelville, entered a plea of guilty to keeping a gambling house and perverting gambling on his premises.

In the large court room the Bosty murder case is being tried. The morning was taken up with the testimony of County Detective McBeth, Coroner Bell and others, establishing the killing and the condition of the body. Nothing particular was developed. Senator William E. Crow is assisting Attorney E. D. Fulton in the defense.

An affidavit of defense to a mechanic's lien was filed in the case of Joseph Soletti against Frank Janazzo. The defendant denies the bill of $218.92; but admits that the plaintiff furnished lumber and constructed a building for him. There was a verbal agreement, however, that the material and labor were not to be paid for separately.

A divorce was granted in the case of Mary Collins against John Collins. Desertion was charged. The wife lived in Franklin township; the husband's residence is unknown. The couple were married in Uniontown in 1908.

In the old divorce case of Della B. DeTall against Arthur DeTall, a rule on the respondent to show cause why he should not pay $75 counsel fees and $30 costs was made absolute.

The action of C. B. Nemon against David Williams of Dunbar to secure payment of $100 on a note, was presented in open court this morning as a "case stated," by McDonald & Gray. The court directed that the case be filed.

The Pittsburg, McKeesport & Youngstown railroad has condemned the property of Alfred M. Fuller in Perry township for right of way and this morning filed a bond in $2,500 to protect. The bond was approved and the company given permission to enter on the premises immediately; but is directed to file an additional bond of $1,500 within 30 days.

The Crystal Supply Company of Gans, through Attorney W. W. Parrish, this morning brought suit against the Iron City Coke Company of Pittsburg for $500 on a promissory note and $526.87 on a book account for merchandise furnished to the workmen of the defendant company at Gans.

Missionary Meeting. A meeting of the Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be held in the Chapel of the church Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Engine Ran
Past a Signal

United Press Telegram. ERIE, Pa., Sept. 5.—Officials of the Erie & Pittsburgh railroad today state that the wreck at Dock Junction, four miles west of here, shortly after 8 o'clock last night, in which a passenger train cut a freight almost in two and in which three persons were killed, was due to the carelessness of Engineer John Jones, among the dead, who ran his train past a stop signal. Fifteen persons were injured, only one seriously.

The dead: JOHN JONES, engineer of the passenger train; JOSEPH KAPLAN, of Harrisburg, Pa. An unidentified tramp.

By passing the danger signal the passenger train crashed into the side of the freight. James Pirman, who was the fireman on the passenger train, stated today he saw the signal and called on Jones to stop the train; then he jumped.

BEATTIE'S STORY
BITTERLY ATTACKED

Commonwealth in Rebuttal Attempts to Discredit Prisoners Tale.

HIS TESTIMONY IS SHAKEN

Despite Beattie's Denial, Witnesses Declare They Heard Him Make Appointment to Meet Paul Beattie, Latter's Mother on Stand.

United Press Telegram. CHESTERFIELD COURT HOUSE, Va., Sept. 5.—That the case of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., on trial for wife-murder, may go to the jury by Thursday was indicated as a possibility today when the cross examination of the accused man came to an abrupt stop. The defense closed and the prosecution began its introduction of rebuttal evidence. Beattie expected further grilling today by Prosecutor Vandenberg, but Judge Watson ruled against any endurance test of witnesses and the Commonwealth Attorney asked only a few perfunctory questions.

In his rebuttal Vandenberg sought to break down the prisoner's denial of meeting his cousin, Paul Beattie, and commissioning him to buy the shotgun with which Mrs. Beattie was murdered. Half a dozen witnesses strengthened Paul's story and completely contradicted that of the accused man. Harry Layman was the first witness. His testimony opened the attack on Henry's denial of the story of Paul as to the events on the Thursday night before the crime. Layman declared that he heard Henry Clay Beattie call up a number on the telephone, saying, "Meet me at Short and Main streets in half an hour; I'll be there." Short and Main streets is where Paul said he met his cousin.

Yesterday Beattie categorically denied all of Layman's testimony. Vandenberg's evident intention was to discredit this point of Henry's story and then to force the inference that the whole tale was false.

Smith fought bitterly against admitting Layman's testimony and at one point the jury was excused while the lawyers argued. Judge Watson admitted Layman's evidence and Vandenberg continued his examination.

The witness declared he had heard Beattie tell another young man standing nearby that he was going as far as Short and Main street. Layman's story was not damaged in cross examination.

W. K. Hart, called to corroborate him, said he saw Beattie at the same time that Layman did.

"He told me after he telephoned," said Hart, "that he expected to take Paul and his wife out riding and that he was going to Short and Main street."

After Smith had failed to shake Hart's story, Mrs. A. B. Houchens, mother-in-law of Paul Beattie, was called. She declared that at 9 o'clock on the Thursday before the murder she answered the telephone at Paul's home.

"I asked who it was and the man on the other end said he was Henry Clay Beattie. He asked for Paul. I heard Paul say 'You want to see me at Short and Main streets? All right, I'll be there.'"

Mrs. Houchens said that Paul then went out.

"When he returned," she continued, "he called up a Mrs. Fletcher." This was the name assumed by Beattie Blufford. Mrs. Houchens declared that she saw Paul come home that night in an automobile and heard him say as he left the car, "Good night, Henry."

"What time did Paul come in the next Saturday night?" asked Vandenberg.

At 11 o'clock, I heard a clock strike.

Under cross examination Smith endeavored to show that the family of Paul had been acting throughout the case to protect Paul. He and Vandenberg argued over this point and the defense battered at the little woman on the stand in an effort to confuse her.

The Connelville Athletic Association, which holds the Central league basketball franchise here, will hold its annual meeting this evening for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. It is not expected there will be any change in the official personnel of the association.

Secretary H. L. Mitchell said today it was hardly likely that any other matter would be taken up at the meeting although the new hall proposition will be discussed at length.

Strong Candidates
Appear in Fifth

The Fifth Ward Republicans are putting up strong candidates for Councilman nomination and there is little question but that those chosen at the primaries will carry the district, which is normally Republican. The Fifth has brought out an unusually strong field.

For Select Council W. O. Schoonover and Attorney P. S. Newmyer will be the rivals for the nomination. Mr. Schoonover's petition is being circulated today. Attorney Newmyer has renewed his activities in public life during the past few months after having been in retirement as far as civic affairs were concerned, for a number of years.

The two Councilmen, as far as known now, will be selected between P. R. Graham, J. W. McClaren and T. E. Miller. Graham is a druggist, McClaren a merchant, and Miller road foreman of engines of the Connelville division of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

It will be the first splash into politics for McClaren and Schoonover.

W. C. Hood, with the Jefferson Powder Company at Birmingham, Ala., is here on a month's visit with relatives. He is an ardent admirer of Roy Ellam, the former Coker, who is regarded as the greatest holding shortstop in the league and one of the most time-hitters, even if his average is not particularly high.

Birmingham has had government by a commission of three lawyers and one business man for the past six months. So successful has the experiment been that all Birmingham, with the exception of the politicians who lost out in the shuffle, are strong advocates of that form of government, says Mr. Hood.

The commissioners are paid $7,000 per year each. During their first two months in office they cut off $70,000 a year that was being paid out in salaries to political pensioners. The commission also derived a tax revenue of $50,000 per year from a public service corporation which had for years enjoyed the ownership of a $2,000,000 property practically free of taxes.

Mr. Hood stated that Montgomery, Ala., has adopted the commission form of government but has not been as successful as Birmingham because of an unwise choice of commissioners. He says the recall has been used to junk two of the three men out of office. Birmingham also enjoys the recall but no effort has been made to use it. The initiative and referendum are also included in the city charter but the commissioners have so ably and intelligently conducted the affairs of the city that the use of these instruments has not been necessary.

Regarding Birmingham's chances for the pennant Hood is enthusiastic. He believes the team will beat out New Orleans. Roy Ellam is a general favorite in Birmingham, as he was here, and his hitting is electrifying spectators day by day. Roy isn't flinching the cover off the ball but Mr. Hood declares he is there with the timely single as often as any other player on the team while he has no superior as a sacrifice hitter and is fast on the bases. Southern League fans think Ellam is a second Hank Wagner in the field. He says it is Ellam's intention to visit Connelville after the close of the Southern League season.

Otha McIntosh, a railroader employed by the Baltimore & Ohio, whose home is in Grafton, was taken seriously ill here from appendicitis and was operated on at the Cottage State hospital this morning. The operation was successful although McIntosh's condition is serious because the trouble had been neglected too long. The appendix was found to be gangrenous when removed.

JOSEPH HORNE CO

PITTSBURGH, PA.

One Quarter of A Million (250,000) People,
Will See This Advertisement, and You Are One of Them
This is The Thoughtful, Earnest Statement of Pittsburgh's Oldest Departmental Store, A Store Established 62 Years Ago.

THE Joseph Horne Company store was established on Market Street in Pittsburgh in 1849 by Mr. Joseph Horne.

Like the compass with four cardinal points—North, East, South and West—there were four cardinal points the founder of this business determined he would follow. Those points were:

- (1) Reliability,
- (2) Service,
- (3) Truthfulness,
- (4) Aggressiveness.

Those four qualities he considered business essentials, and though times and conditions have changed, honor is just as honorable, truth is just as truthful today as 62 years ago. The descendants of Mr. Horne and his partners, who now guide this business, follow the same motto that has hung over the door (figuratively speaking) ever since the key was first turned in the lock.

Every business institution in the world is conducted for the purpose of profit-making, but the Joseph Horne Company know that its business bread is buttered on the side of reliability, service, truthfulness and aggressiveness. In the bright lexicon of modern departmental store methods, these are our guiding stars.

You Live Within 60 Miles or Less of Pittsburgh

PERHAPS an interurban electric line, one of those modern-day marvels of transportation, will bring you direct to the Joseph Horne Store. If not, a railroad is at your command and will whisk you to Pittsburgh in almost no time—50 or 60 miles is nothing nowadays.

If you buy only as little as a spool of thread, it will be delivered to your home without further thought or inconvenience to you, and without a penny's added charge.

If you will take a day and come to Pittsburgh, you can supply all your needs in a comparatively short space of time. You can do it quickly, easily and pleasantly. You will have an immense variety from which to choose, and you will pay the smallest prices for which it is possible to produce merchandise of good, reliable quality. When through with your shopping, you will have time for the matinee or a visit to some Pittsburgh friends before train-time.

The Exposition Building is but a Stone's Throw From Horne's

THE great Western Pennsylvania Exposition is now open. The first excursion is Wednesday, September 6th; the second is Thursday, September 7th, and the third is Saturday, September 9th.

There are other excursions each Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday until the conclusion of the Exposition, October 21st. What a wonderful opportunity it is to get in personal touch with the Joseph Horne Company and the Exposition. You can combine two pleasurable events in one and profit by both.

We Do Not Operate This Store to Suit Ourselves but to Please Our Customers

T has been said that public opinion is of greater force than money or men. Public opinion is the supreme court from which there is no appeal.

We do our best to make this a store that will appeal to you. When you come to town you may take your parcels to the Checking Desk at the rear of the Main Floor and have them checked free of charge. The immense Mezzanine Balcony is an alluring spot to sit and rest for a moment. There you may write a letter, read the newspaper and meet your friends. Telephones are handy, there is a Post Office right at your elbow where money orders may be bought and stamps purchased. When lunch time comes, you may take an express elevator to the 6th floor and at small expense have as comfortable and appetizing a lunch as one could desire.

If you wish a taxicab ride, ask any floorman and he will have the machine at the door in five minutes. At train-time if you will ask a floorman he will have a boy help you take your parcels to the train.

This is fundamentally and emphatically a store of reliable things. It is not our business to see how cheap an article is purchasable. It is our business, and at the same time our pleasure, to see how good a thing can be, and then to figure at how low a price it can be sold. So, whatever you pay at Horne's and whatever you buy at Horne's, reliable quality is the basic characteristic.

Some times people KNOW things. Sometimes they think them. But this one thing you may KNOW. If anything should prove unsatisfactory for any cause, or for no apparent cause, it is returnable at any time and your money will be as cheerfully refunded as though you were drawing it from a bank.

Fall, and the Things for Fall

THE world is a little place in these days of telegraph, cable, wireless, steamships as big as skyscrapers and express trains that rival the lightning's speed. The Joseph Horne Company spreads its nets wherever good merchandise may be found and brings to Pittsburgh the products of the world, from whatever sources they are made best.

The Fall Catalog, Issued by The Mail Order Department, Will be Out About the Middle of September.

You Ought to Have It

And Since it Requires Only a Postal to Have Your Name Placed on the List, Don't You Think You Had Better Send For It?

TUESDAY EVENING, SEP. 5, 1911.

THE PRESENT AND THE COMING SCHOOL BOARD.

The Educational Parliament of Connelville is added to lengthy sessions, chiefly because its membership is composed of many men with many minds who do not always agree and who are all able to argue the question until long after the cows come home.

The meeting last night was no exception to the rule. Many interesting questions were developed and most of the members delivered themselves thereupon with perspicacity if not with eloquence. It is a matter of record that the presiding officer had hard work suppressing the side remarks and limiting the debate to one at a time.

However, it must be said for the Public School Parliament that it is the living, moving, teaching embodiment of the principle that "Out of a multitude of counsels comes wisdom." In spite of some faintly suppressed suspicions that private interests have sometimes become entangled about the feet of public interest causing civic virtue to stumble along the path of civic righteousness, nevertheless upon the whole the larger body has proven that good government can come out of representative government.

The new school law provides for a smaller body of directors elected at large. We will watch with interest the result of this experiment. In theory it is a better thing, but the theory assumes that the seven directors will be seven wise and good men. It is a beautiful theory, but we fear it will not always work out in practice. Whether it does or not depends altogether upon the people.

Ambitions for School Directors seem to be somewhat shy so far. If good men do not apply, they should be pushed.

JUDICIAL PAROLE AND JUDICIAL RECALL.

The proposition for the Recall of Judges did not receive favorable consideration, but the suggestion that the Judges themselves should have the power of Recall has been received with great favor in the State of Pennsylvania. Justice has ceased to be iron and has come to be rubber. The man who stumbles is permitted a reasonable chance to recover his moral balance and walk upright again. The convict strikes are forever damnable, and justly so to the essentially vicious, but not to those whose feet sometimes slip.

The judicial parole is of recent origin. It places a large measure of responsibility in the hands of the judiciary, but it places it wisely. It is there in hope for a man to reform and become a good citizen, it is the duty and interest of the State to give him that chance. The law punishes people, not for the pleasure of doing so, but only for the purpose of deterring others from the commission of crime.

The parole is usually extended to youthful offenders, but the application is rather unusual, but it is not necessarily unjust. This former will be required to make full amends, and will be given another chance to live right and be right and become a useful citizen.

That's better than paying his board in the Pen and turning him out after a term of years with a scarlet 'T' upon his forehead.

Our esteemed and joyous contemporary, the Connelville News, has taken pleasure in preserving to posterity within the voluminous folds of our magnificent circulation The Post of the Pennsylvanian like the verbal bitman that he is and his flight takes this form:

A man from Ohio,
He lost his roll for awhile;
Not being quite steady,
He hunted up Hildy,
And went home with the wad and a smile.

There will be no compromise politics in South Connelville.

Candidates are blossoming every day in this lovely September election weather.

The discovery that the gas company is under contract to supply the public buildings with free gas is decidedly interesting and makes the average citizen respect the School Directors who work the School Board up after its long sleep.

Seven up seems to be a savage game in the Catfish country.

When the river goes down the mercury goes up. We will indulge in the hope that the river will not get too low.

Burgess Evans insists upon doing a cash business.

Larobe is preparing for a jubilee of the Jumping Jupiter kind.

The Connelville High School is doing a regular out-of-town university business.

The increase in the grade school pupils lately indicates that Connelville continues to grow and renews the ancient suspicion that the census enumerators didn't count the babies.

The School Board should favor to the best of its ability any proposition for the dissemination of intelligence. The more foreigners know about this School Directors of the Third Class.

Washington Reporter.

The most important officer to be chosen by the people at the election next November are School Directors. The new school code is to go into operation and its provisions make such radical changes that the Reporter gives some of those that refer to directors.

Every city, borough or township is hereafter to be a school district and each district with a population of 5,000 and less than 20,000 is to be in the third class, electing seven directors at large.

Washington is in the third class and its voters will choose three directors for six years, two for four years and two for two years.

Hereafter as terms expire all School Directors are to be elected for six year terms.

Women are eligible to election as Section 207 of the code reads "ANY CITIZEN of this Commonwealth, having a good moral character, being 21 years of age or upwards and having been a resident of the district for at least one year prior to the date of his election, shall be eligible to hold the office of School Director therein."

It is provided that no Burgess, County Commissioner, District Attorney, Borough Treasurer, Tax Collector, Auditor or Constable shall be eligible to the office of School Director.

Hereafter there should be no trouble in securing a quorum of the board as there has been frequently for many years past, or since Washington had such a large board.

If a School Director neglects or refuses to attend two successive regular meetings, unless detained by sickness, or prevented by necessary absence from the district, the board may declare him vacant.

This director who neglects or refuses to perform his duties by voting when he is present at a meeting as he ought to be, his seat being declared vacant.

School Directors are to serve without pay and must take an oath that they have not paid or contributed, or promised to pay or contribute, either directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing to procure their nomination or election.

Candidates for School Director are permitted to pay money for "proper expenses expressly authorized by law."

A School Director who accepts money or any other valuable thing for his vote on any question in the board or in committee in guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall forfeit his office, shall be ineligible again to hold any office or any other school position, shall be liable to a fine not to exceed $50 and jail sentence not to exceed one year.

The school board of third class districts are to organize on the first Monday of December and elect a Secretary and a Treasurer to hold office until the Monday of next July when their successors will be elected for one year.

In a school district of the third class a director is eligible to the office of either secretary or Treasurer but can not hold both offices.

IT IMPEDES THE PAVING WORK

Plans of John H. Harmon For Fourth
Ward House House Adopted—
Child Drinks a Saucerful of Carbon
Oil—Other Notes.

SCOTTDALL, Sept. 5.—Town Council met last evening in their regular monthly meeting with all members present but J. F. Hardy. It was decided to adopt the plans of Architect John H. Harmon of Uniontown for a new house in the Fourth Ward, for which a lot was recently purchased. The drawings show the plans of a very good looking two-story house, and the burgess and secretary have been instructed to advertise for bids on the building of the same.

There was some discussion about the brick being used for the paving and the Maxwell brick piled along Grant avenue for paving that street are to be tested. Some of the Councilmen are of the opinion that a lot of these bricks are soft. When the bids were accepted for paving it was given out to the contractors and brick men that the brick would be tested when they arrived and refused if they did not come up to the standard of the preliminary tests. A motion was then made to have the brick on Chestnut street and Fourth avenue given a test.

C. H. Baldwin was paid on estimates on the streets as follows: Stoner street, $1,345.04; Chestnut street from Market to Bridge street, $1,375.75; Chestnut street from Pottsville to Market street, $1,711.11; Fourth avenue, $1,999.95; and Grant avenue, $1,712.70.

Mr. Butler said that the Street Committee had not been able to get L. F. Miller to meet with them in regard to the complaint about pieces of sidewalk at Pittsburgh street and Broadway. A motion was passed that the Street Committee give a guide and permission to several residents of Fourth avenue to dig up the sidewalk to put in a curb.

The Council passed a motion that if the Tri-State Telephone Company does not have its pole at Grant avenue and Broadway moved so that the contractor can set the curb and go ahead with the paving there the pole is to be cut down. The telephone company has been notified a couple of times, it is said, to have the pole removed, so that the paving can be laid.

The firemen were again before Council complaining that the fire alarm service over the Tri-State telephone is too poor for them, and asking for bell telephones in the houses. The Tri-State telephone is given free as a part of the company's franchise agreement.

Discussion was had regarding the feasibility of an overhead bridge from Broadway past J. W. Ruth's planing mill. This is a dangerous crossing and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company having raised the tracks at the crossing makes it much worse. The borough started to grade down the hill leading to the crossing but the U. S. Casket Company objected as the grading would cross the foundation walls of their buildings. A motion was passed last evening to have the hill slanted for winter.

The Sewer Committee is to investigate the needs of several people out in Brownstown who claim they need sewers and think it unfair to pay taxes for the last 12 or 13 years, and then have to pay for cleaning closets besides when a sewer would save them all this trouble. The matter was up a couple of years ago, and one of the petitioners declared that a Councilman in that ward held the sewer building off.

The sewer at Walnut avenue and Chestnut street has not been put in deep enough and a motion was made that it be put in if it was necessary to go under the water line there. There was some dispute about the marking of the grade stakes in that neighborhood, and the engineer said that one stake was marked wrongly by nine inches, but had been covered up so that he could not check it, but the one stake did not govern the rest of the stakes, and indicated that the contractor or someone had allowed the grading to end up too soon.

Visit of the Stark.

Buys Father's Business.
Walter H. Runge, a well known young man of town, has bought the upholstery business of his father Alexander Runge. Walter has grown up in the business and will certainly make a success since he has embarked on his own line.

The Fair Opens.
Edward Workman of Hawkeville, a director of the Westernland county fair at Yellowwood, was in town yesterday and says he visited the fair ground on Sunday afternoon. Eighteen carloads of horses, cattle, sheep, swine, pets and other exhibits came in that day and the grounds looked as if the fair had already opened. There was an entire carload of poultry, and the poultry judge this year will be W.

Theodore Wittman, of Allentown, who will be present tomorrow. A number of the Scottdale people are exhibiting poultry this year, and all the fanners here know Judge Wittman, who holds a high rank among the star chicken breeders of America.

Drank Carbon Oil.
Clarence, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush, drank a saucerful of carbon oil on Saturday and nearly strangled to death, as well as being made very sick. Mr. Bush, the father, is in the Arcade moving picture house and the family lives at Owensdale. The mother was illing and cleaning lamps and poured the oil in the saucer. The child crawled around and gulped the oil down before anyone could stop it.

Personal Mention.
Miss Mae Cullerton, who has been visiting at her home on South Broad way for the past week, returned yesterday to her duties at St. Francis Hospital, Pittsburgh.

A HEALTHY, HAPPY OLD AGE

May be promoted by those who gently cleanse the system; now and then, when in need of a laxative remedy, by taking a desiccated and truly beneficial Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which is the only family laxative generally approved by the most eminent physicians, because it acts in a natural, strengthening way and warms and tones up the internal organs without weakening them. It is equally beneficial for the very young and the middle aged, as it is always efficient and free from all harmful ingredients. To get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine, bearing the name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package.

Ed. J. Sullivan Dies at Lemont

Edward J. Sullivan, one of the best known and highly respected citizens of North Union township, died at his home at Lemont Sunday evening, Sept. 3, of dropsy, aged 62 years, two months and 23 days. Deceased was born in Pittsburgh on July 10, 1849. He spent 20 years of his life as an employee of the different street railway companies. He came to Fayette county about 1892, settling at Lemont, Pa., and began working for the H. C. Frick Coke Company, where he was employed in and about the works for the past 16 years.

Deceased was a hard worker and a good citizen, always interested in the welfare of the community in which he lived. He was married to Marian O'Brien of Lewistown, Pa., in 1884, and to this union were born 12 children. He is survived by his wife and six sons, viz: William, David, Robert, Thomas, James and Malachi, all at home. Deceased had been ailing for the past four years of dropsy which disease finally caused his death. He has been confined to his home since last Christmas, not being able to walk or get around without help. He was a great lover of sports and his friends were late as last week would call for him and convey him to ball games that were being played at Lemont. He was a greater lover of baseball and when able took a great interest in all the amusements that were going on around him. Deceased was a kind and loving father, a devoted husband and loved and respected by all who knew him. He will be greatly missed by his great number of friends in the community in which he lived.

The funeral will be held from his late residence at Lemont Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. Requiem High Mass will be celebrated in St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic church at Lemont at 9 o'clock by Father B. P. Kenna, of Uniontown. Interment in the church cemetery.

Facts About Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman now-a-days has medical treatment at the time of child-birth, but many approach the experience with strength and when the strain is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother's habits. There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unpleasant things that with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, women will persist in going blindly to the trial. It isn't as though the experience came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but they, for the most part, trust to chance and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

Gotch Easily Beats Giant Hack

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—The geographical center of the wrestling world was more than ever fortified at Humboldt, Iowa, the home of Frank Gotch yesterday. Moreover, Referee Ed Smith, who proclaimed the world's champion victor over George Hackenschmidt, declared that for the next ten years there would be no shift of the wrestling capital, unless Gotch should choose to change his place of residence.

The Russian's showing was pitiful. The crowd declared that he had "quit," but the defeated challenger, through copious tears, averred that he entered the arena with a wrenched knee on which Gotch worked and speedily reduced him to a state of comparative helplessness. Dr. J. C. Davis, who examined both wrestlers before they went to the mat, declared that though there might be something wrong with Hackenschmidt's knee, it was not evident during the examination. While it took Gotch 14 minutes and 18 seconds to win the first fall, the second fell required five minutes and 22 seconds, which Hackenschmidt's friends assert proved that his knee was in bad condition.

Referee Smith is authority for the statement that when Gotch secured the fatal toe lock, which won him the match, Hackenschmidt cried out "Don't hurt my toe," and a second later, "Don't break my leg," and fell with his shoulders to the mat, frothing at the mouth.

The first fall resulted from a reverse body hold after the men had struggled 14:18. That terrible toe hold, for which Gotch is famous, was responsible for the second fall. He clamped it upon the left foot of Hackenschmidt after the second fall had gone 5:32. Scarcely had he obtained the grip when Hackenschmidt acknowledged defeat.

Barn Burned in Somerset County

SOMERSET, Sept. 5.—When William K. Blough and his two sons, Irvin and Nelson, who operate a threshing machine in the western part of the county, returned to their home on the Strome farm, three miles south of Trent, last Wednesday evening, they found their large barn a heap of ruins. During the afternoon the barn was set afire and the conflagration made such a clean sweep that when the Bloughs returned there was no need for their horses, none of the contents of the building having been saved.

The Bloughs are positive in their declarations to the effect that the blaze was of incendiary origin. However, they have not announced who the incendiary is, but explain that he was seen running away from the barn a short time before it was enveloped in flames. They had no insurance on the contents of the barn and their loss is $1,000. The barn belonged to Samuel Strome, of Mt. Pleasant, from whom the Bloughs rent the farm they occupy. It is said that Strome carried insurance on the building in the amount of one-half its value.

None of the Blough family were at home when the fire occurred. They were threatened some time ago by a party holding a grudge with the loss of their barn by fire. The fire occurred Wednesday afternoon between one and two o'clock. The barn contained all the crops the Bloughs had harvested this summer, several buggies and sleds, and an outfit of farming implements. Accessories to their threshing process, were also destroyed.

The Shields Trial On at Greensburg

GREENSBURG, Pa., Sept. 5.—Before Judge A. D. McConnell, Sheriff John E. Shields is being tried on a charge of misdemeanor filed at the instigation of District Attorney W. T. Dom, the prosecutor being Constable Thomas Washburn. The charge is on the sheriff's alleged failure to pay into the county treasury $24 paid to be due for serving writs coming from Fayette county and extending over a period of several years.

After the trial, started yesterday afternoon several of the counts were withdrawn, because it was shown by the defendant's attorneys that the statute of limitations cut them out.

Upon the outcome of this case, it is believed, hangs the fate of all the other cases that have been brought against Sheriff Shields. In the lineup of those assisting the prosecution and those who are friendly to the sheriff are men strong in the two opposing factions of the Republican party in the county. Very slow progress was made in the case yesterday because the entire morning was taken up with the selection of jurors.

Rule on Loan Association.

On petition of R. L. Hannam, James W. Buttermore, J. D. Sherlick and W. E. Miller, defendants in a suit filed by the Lebanon Valley Savings & Loan Association, to open judgment, a rule was granted in court at Uniontown on the plaintiff company. Sterling, Higbee and Matthews represent the defendants.

Men's and Youths' Fall Suits

Having an all-wool standard and sticking to it—Having only the specialized service of undoubted leaders among manufacturing tailors—Having—in consequence—only clothing that is correct in style and tailored in the best manner.

Is it any wonder that the W.-M. clothing business grows every year and grows fast?

Men and young men are invited to come and inspect the new Fall styles. The selection was governed by trained good taste and will meet the approval of men who know. The heavier weaves seem to have the call—the chevots and cassimeres—though there is ample selection in worsteds, also.

Youths Fall suits at $12.50 to $30.00. The new browns, and new greys are chief favorites; and the blues.

Ready for Men Also

The "Society Brand" clothes at $20. to $30. The "Hirsch-Wickwire" brand at $22.50 to $35. "Michael Stern" clothes at $15 to $25. Nothing lacking in these three brands. The most particular man will like the selection. W.-M. Special Suit $17.50; worth $22.50. Men's Fall Overcoats, $10 to $40.

Men's Stetson Fall Hats

If it's a Stetson, it's right. That's almost an axiom in hatdom—and, anyhow, thousands of men think it.

The new Fall Stetson derbies are in and coming—soft shapes in new shades, also, $3.50 each.

Mallory Hats, finest fur felt, cravanetted, $3.00 to $3.50.

English made hats, improved styles, $2.50 and to $3.50.

English made caps, unlike the homemade sorts, 50c to $1.50.

We Don't Know of Another Boys' Suit in Town to Equal These

Blue Serge Suits at $5.00.

We intended that these suits should be exclusive—that is why we raised the standard so high, and let the price remain so low.

The material, of course, absolutely all-wool, is selected in large quantities. It is then turned over to a maker thoroughly acquainted with the W.-M. Co. way of making boys' clothing and, after the strictest tailoring, comes straight to Wright-Metzler's.

Boys' two pants suits, all sizes, $4.00, $6.00 to $9.00.

Boys' knee pants suits, all styles, $3, $4 to $12.00.

Boys' Knickerbocker pants, 50c to $2.00.

Rompers, full and roomy, for little chaps, 50c to $1.00.
